By William Jagger

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from To the People of Suffolk, of All Parties To you I present a fair account of the expenses of our government at different periods. The first year that Mr. Monroe was President, 1821, there was spent ten millions, seven hundred and twenty-three thousand, four hundred and seventy-nine dollars. The first year that Mr. Adams was President, 1825, was spent eleven millions, four hundred and ninety thousand, four hundred and fifty-nine dollars. The first year General Jackson was President, 1829, was spent twelve millions, six hundred and eighty-seven thousand, two hundred and sixteen dollars. From this you may notice there has been a gradual increase of the expenses as our population and business increased for eight years. Please notice, and for ever remember, what it cost to do our public business, eight years from that time, when all their machinery was in full operation, and under the control of the constructor, Mr. Van Buren, with Mr. Silas Wright, Mr. Buchanan, and Col. Benton, senators, and Mr. Cambrelling, and a kw more, to assist in working these shaving...
