Excerpt: . . . recording, amount of work necessary to hold possession of a mining claim, subject to the following requirements: The loca. tion must be distinctly marked on the ground, so that its boundaries can be readily traced. All records of mining claims hereafter made shall contain the name or names of the locators, the date of the location, and such a description of the claim or claims located, by reference to some natural object or permanent monument, as will identify the claim. On each claim, located after the loth May, 1872, and until a patent has been issued therefor, not less than one hun dred dollars worth of labor shall be performed, or improvements made, during each year. On all claims located prior to the loth day of May, 1872, ten dollars worth of labor shall be performed, or improvements made, by the loth day of june, 1874, and each year thereafter, for each one hundred feet in length along the vein, until a patent has been issued therefor; but where such claims are held in common, such expenditure may be made upon any one claim; and upon a failure to comply with these conditions, the claim or mine upon which such failure occurred shall be open to relocation in the same manner as if no location of the same had ever been made; provided, that the original locators, their heirs, assigns, or legal representatives, have not resumed work upon the claim after failure, and before...
