SAVE THE WORLD AND STILL BE HOME FOR DINNER: HOW TO CREATE A FUTURE OF SUSTAINABLE ABUNDANCE FOR ALL (HARDBACK)

Capital Books (VA), United States, 2009. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book.  As featured on -- A visionary business coach shows how to rethink our strategies and get started with making our lives count and the world a better place.  For many, the current economic crisis has clearly demonstrated that Big Business and too much me have almost destroyed our world. But visionary business coach Will Marre steps in to show us how to be leaders of meaningful lives and a better world. By joining Will s trailblazing approach to civic activism through self-knowledge, you ll learn how to become an engine of change and be inspired to * Rethink where you are in your life plan * Focus on what really matters to you your Promise * Get off the starting line and race with like-minded individuals to make a difference big or small. Will shows us the power of individuals and corporations, like * Chris who, surprised by his own compassion, decided on the spot to pay for the college education of one of the Lost Boys of Sudan and later helped him build a school in Southern Sudan. * Martin, a global executive of a multi-billion dollar company, who re-invented himself as a revolutionary leader of environmental sustainability throughout North and South America turning his knowledge of business into a force for change. * Kim, who saved her money-losing chain of technical schools by enlisting the help of every employee and transformed the company into a powerhouse of 21st century skill training within eighteen months without a single lay-off. * Kate, who used the grief and wisdom of losing her mother to cancer to found a groundbreaking charity to help grieving children when she was only 27....
